It is said that no one can be indifferent to India. Infact it always evokes strong emotions.

Anuradha takes you on a journey through parts of India she knows and loves. Through her photographs, she brings in front of you the vibrant cultures and colours that make India special while she explains its many complexities. Her hope is that one day you will visit India for the first time or for a repeat visit and when you do; you will love the experience as much as she loves her country.
